IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FOURTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF UTAH, STATE OF UTAH

THE STATE OF UTAH
Plaintiff, vs.
Tyler Robinson
Defendant.

Invocation of Speedy Trial Rights
Case No. 251403576

COMES NOW, Erika Kirk, by and through undersigned counsel, and hereby asserts her rights, under Utah Code § 77-38-7(2) as the victim representative, to a speedy trial.

Nobody believed in the importance of the United States Constitution more than Charlie Kirk. And although the United States Constitution guarantees criminal defendants many rights, it does not guarantee them the right to cause undue delay in the criminal justice process. The Defendant in this case is entitled to a fair trial, and he must be given one, but he is not entitled to cause undue delay to the criminal justice process.

The Utah Code affords victims of a crime “the right to a speedy disposition of the charges free from unwarranted delay caused by or at the behest of the defendant . . . and to prompt and final conclusion of the case after the disposition or conviction and sentence, including prompt and final conclusion of all collateral attacks on dispositions or criminal judgments.”

This Court is tasked with the critically important function of ensuring the Defendant has a fair trial, but this Court must also do so while balancing Mrs. Kirk’s right to a speedy trial and therefore this Notice invokes Mrs. Kirk’s rights under applicable Utah Code.
